

Announcement: Hub William Street will close on March 31st, 2019.

With the lease coming to an end we have made the difficult decision to close the Hub William Street site.

Why are you closing?

With our William Street lease up for renewal, it was necessary to decide whether it was worthwhile to renew or extend. A key factor in the decision was guided by our mission to provide our members with the same high standard of amenities and fit-out across all of our clubhouses. Unfortunately, the nature, size and configuration of 101 William Street prevents us from upgrading the site to be consistent with our other clubhouses.

We will be putting energy into our existing Sydney clubhouse, Hub Hyde Park and preparing for our next Sydney CBD site in mid 2019.

What date are you closing?

The official closing date of Hub William Street will be 31 March, 2019.

What will happen to members?

We're hoping that many members will be happy to take desks and or offices at our Hub Hyde Park site just up the road! Alternative suggestions will be offered in the event we cannot provide space and we will endeavour to assist in facilitating alternate arrangements.

It was members who helped to co-create Hub Sydney (which later became Hub William Street) over a 6 month process back in 2013 - and they helped to evolve the concept to what it is today - a well known way of (co)working!

We would like to send a huge thanks to all the businesses, organisations, government groups, and partners who have supported us during our time in the building at 101 William Street.

And most of all, our wonderful members and team for all their effort and energy in creating a truly exceptional community.

What will happen to the staff?

We are working with current staff at Hub William Street to transition them into the wider business.

What will happen to the furniture and installed technology?

We're hoping to recycle and repurpose much of it for other Hub sites!

Will you run normal programming (wine-down) and events until March?

We will continue to run the crowd favourite, Mixed Bag Lunch and Friday Wine Down.

We're planning a final end wine down to toast all the amazing things which happened in this space - don't miss that final hurrah!

What is happening to the space after Hub moves out?

We're not sure. We're hoping some new tenants move in and enjoy the space!

I have more questions!

Sure, just email us at hello@hubaustralia.com and we'll do our best.
